

Personal Narrative
Student Checklist

Criteria	Yes/No	Comments
• I have an introduction to my story.
• My introduction sets the scene, giving details as to where and when my experience happened.
• The events of my story are connected and are in logical order.
• I have written in first-person point of view and have kept that point of view throughout my paper.
• I have used details and images in my writing.
• I have included my thoughts and feelings about my experience.
• I have included dialogue in my story to make events come to life.
• I have a conclusion that tells how the experience affected me and/or changed me.
• I have capitalized words correctly.
• I have complete sentences and have used the correct end punctuation.
• I have checked for spelling errors.		